Thank you for attending the “Great Start” Leader’s Training. As you proceed after this training, it is important for several points to be understood:

1. All “Great Start” materials are copyrighted by Amarillo Marriage & Family Institute, Inc. (DBA, New Hope Counseling & Resources). All rights are reserved regarding their use and this document will clarify what permissions are granted to you as a Trainer and Advanced Trainer.
2. The term “certification” or “certified trainer” is not used in conjunction with the “Great Start” curriculum. This is to avoid any suggestion of a legal relationship or level of assured competency.
3. Manuals and other materials delivered through “Great Start” may not be copied. However, permission may be received upon written request to copy small sections of “Great Start” to supplement other trainings. Please submit these requests to the address below and proceed only after receiving a reply from New Hope.
4. Having completed the initial 8 hours of training, you are free to teach the curriculum to individuals, small groups, or large audiences. You are not free to train others to teach the curriculum until you have become an Advanced Trainer.
5. When you do teach the curriculum, you are asked to purchase a Participant’s Guide for each participant present. It is through the purchase of these guides that the development and ongoing maintenance of “Great Start” is financially supported.
6. For those receiving this training free of charge, it is requested that you complete your training by providing one (1) free public seminar using this material. When you communicate the training dates to your regional subcontractor, they will provide you with the appropriate number of Participant Guides free of charge. After you have taught your 1st workshop a document of completion will be sent to you in recognition of your training in Great Start.
7. To become an Advanced Trainer, you will need to present three (3) trainings (public or otherwise) with at least 20 participants total.
